owing to the outbreak of plague the loan of Rs. 10,000 was sanctioned in 1899 to remove the congestion. The municipality now wishes to treat the amount, or at least one half of it, being liabed as grant-in-aid. This being declined, they pray for the remission of interest & the payment of the loan in 20 annual instalments, on the ground that the loan was made by govt. of their own accord at the time of plague.

Under the standing orders of April 1899 the interest payable on such loans is 4% & the maximum period of repayt is 20 years.

How is the Municipality going on? Is there any thing to be said about the financial condition of the Municipality?

If the period of repayment is extended to 20 years, Govt cannot reasonably consider the future instalment on account of interest on the condition of the Municipality may improve in future. Such interest in arrears maybe omitted if the Board is really unable to pay.

The interest payable on the loan is Rs 400 per annum at 4% c.

It is ascertained from the Comptroller's office that the interest due upto the end of the year 1905-06 has been adjusted in the accounts; the interest due for 1906-07 has to be adjusted during the current year. There is thus no interest in arrears.
